Jesus does not perform miracles to provoke faith in the unbelieving.

He could not do any miracles there, except lay his hands on a few sick people and heal them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Mark 6:5-6

Mark 6:5-6

Jesus did not come as a magician or a miracle worker to display and dazzle his audience. His “words” and his “work” were from God (cf. 6:2). Those who rejected this inherent claim in his ministry could not experience God’s redemptive work on their behalf. Therefore, while faith does not represent the necessary cause for the effect of a miracle, miracles do not take place in the absence of faith.
