NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. What was most impactful to this morning?
2. What did you find interesting about Paul's missionary journey's? Why?
3. God is a God of the journey, not the destination: What is your reaction to this statement? What does it mean to you personally?
4. (Scale 1-7) How comfortable are you with not being in control? How does this impact your relationship with God?
5. How will you commit to become more "present" with the journey that God has you on?
6. What is the next right step in the journey God has for you? What will you do today about this?
7. How does this message change your perspective on the destination?
8. How does this message impact your relationship with God, especially as it relates on your current journey?
