

What God does in you becomes more powerful
when it comes out of you.

What if spiritual maturity was no longer defined by how many believers you know but by how many unbelievers you serve?

Mark 5:1-8

They went across the lake to the region of the Gerasenes. When Jesus got out of the boat, a man with an impure spirit came from the tombs to meet him. This man lived in the tombs, and no one could bind him anymore, not even with a chain. For he had often been chained hand and foot, but he tore the chains apart and broke the irons on his feet. No one was strong enough to subdue him. Night and day among the tombs and in the hills he would cry out and cut himself with stones.

When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell on his knees in front of him. He shouted at the top of his voice, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In God’s name don’t torture me!” For Jesus had said to him, “Come out of this man, you impure spirit!”

Mark 5:18-20

As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged to go with him. Jesus did not let him, but said, “Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you.” So the man went away and began to tell in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed.

Feelin' FOMO

A true follower of Jesus is not nearly as afraid of missing out on this life as they are of their friends missing out on the next one.

Jesus sees people's unbelief not as an obstacle
but as an opportunity.

If your spiritual life ever gets boring
then it might be a sign that there's something pouring in but nothing pouring out.

You're never farther from God than when you are close but don't share his heart for unbelievers.

Could there be a greater reward in heaven than seeing all the people you brought with you?
